OBJECTION TO THE EXECUTIVE BOARD

(United Press.)

WASHINGTON Feb. 17 .- The first big Democratic pow-wow since the November elections started here today under the cloud of factional strife. The meeting was that of the party executive committee called by National Chairman White.

Followers of William Jennings Bryan objected to the meeting. A letter from R. C. Roper Bryan's political manager to White demanded to know by what right the executive committee was attempting to reorganize the party. Roper urged the national committee to set in motion machinery for reorganization of the Democratic party from the bottom instead of from the top.
